6.2 All participants are expected to conduct themselves in a professional and courteous manner during their participation in the event. This means, for example, that urinating or defecating anywhere on or near the course shall be strictly prohibited except in toilet facilities. Anyone violating this rule of conduct shall be disqualified from the event and will be asked to leave the course.

6.3 Every participant shall be provided with a race number which MUST be worn on the front of shirts and be visible at all times during the event. The race number is to be worn as issued. No participant shall be permitted to participate in the event without the appropriate number.

6.4 All participants must write their name and details of any health problems or medication on the reverse of the race number, which must be worn on the front of shirts during the race.

6.5 Participants should also inform the race organisers of any special medical conditions.

6.6 Participants must begin the event during the official recognised starting times.

7 PARTICIPANT OBLIGATIONS

All participants must oblige to the following:

7.1 Advice provided by the Organiser as well as instructions and directions given by officials and race marshals of the event.

7.2 Avoid using headphones whilst running, to limit the risk of injury to yourself and other participants. The Organiser will not be held responsible for incidents caused as a result of the use of headphones which inhibit the communication of important warnings or information from emergency services or course marshals.

7.3 Participants accept that they must make their best efforts in training for and completing the course in less than 2.5 hours (15 minutes per KM).

7.4 You will be provided with a race number which you must conspicuously wear on the front during the race. You will not be permitted to run in the race without the appropriate race number. Anybody found running in the wrong race number may be disqualified and may be refused entry into any future Events. Race numbers must be worn as issued not be altered, cut, folded, or otherwise concealed or mutilated in any way. It is a condition of entry that all runners must complete the contact details and medical information (if applicable) on the entry form.

8 THE START

8.1 All participants must be positioned behind the starting line when starting and must run over the start mat to activate their timing chip, failure to do so will result in a finishing time not being available for them.

participants need to assemble in their correct start wave

9 COURSE MONITORING

9.1 Any participant who has been found by a course marshal/steward, event official or surveillance equipment to have gained an unfair advantage by intentionally shortening the route of the race ("cutting the course") shall be immediately disqualified from the event.

9.2 No persons are authorised to be on the course unless they are registered participants. Therefore, no person shall be allowed to accompany a participant if he/she is not registered in the event, nor shall any participant be allowed, without the permission of the event management, to receive assistance from anyone during the progress of the event. Any person not properly displaying an authorised and issued race number shall be directed to leave the course.

9.3 A hands-on medical examination during the progress of an event by officially designated medical personnel shall not be considered assistance and will not result in disqualification if participant is deemed medically fit. If a participant becomes ill during or after the event and/or receives medical attention or treatment either from event medical staff, medical providers or any doctor or hospital, they authorise such persons to provide details (including details of medical treatment).

10 PARTICIPANT SAFETY

10.1 Medical personnel authorized by the event to do so may examine any participant who appears to be in distress. If in the sole opinion of authorised medical personnel it is in the best interest of the participant's health and welfare, medical personnel may remove the participant from the event.

10.2 Participants must retire at once from race if ordered to do so by a member of the event's official staff, official medical staff, or any person in authority, including fire and police officers.

10.3 Participants are responsible and assume liability for any and all medical expenses incurred as a result of training for and/or participation in the event, including but not limited to ambulance transport, hospital stays, physician and pharmaceutical goods and services.

10.4 In the interest of safety, the Race Director and event officials, in consultation with the Police and Emergency Services, reserve the right to delay, cancel, or suspend the race due to extreme inclement weather or a major incident on or near the event route. In these circumstances, no refunds will be issued.

10.5 In the event of any major occurrences along the route, the Race Director and the Emergency Services reserve the right to alter/shorten the route, but still provide a race if possible. In these circumstances, no refunds will be issued.

10.6 The Race Director and the Emergency Services reserve the right to stop the race at any time, if deemed necessary. These would be in circumstances beyond our control and no refunds would be given.

10.7 If you have any health concerns or are uncertain whether you are fit to run, please contact your GP before you enter. If you have medical conditions that may affect you during the race or are taking any medication(s) you are required to indicate these on your entry form, so that it is evident in the event that you need medical attention during the race.

10.8 In certain cases, you may need to check your doctor is happy for you to take part. This might be because:

11 LIABILITY

11.1 Participation is at the participants own risk. Except only for death or personal injury resulting from our negligence we accept no responsibility whatsoever for any injury, illness, loss or damage to property and possessions, action, claim, economic loss, cost, or expense howsoever caused which may arise in consequence of your participation in the race.

11.2 The organiser, its staff, agents or contractors shall not be liable for indirect or consequential loss or damage.

11.3 The Organiser will not be liable for any computer result anomalies or any technical malfunctions.

11.4 Whilst the Organiser takes every care with staging the event, the participant acknowledges that personal accident and personal items insurance is their own responsibility. The organiser shall not be liable to the participant for any loss or damage of or to personal equipment belonging to the participant, or any indirect or consequential loss or damage whatsoever arising out of the participant taking part in the event, or for any loss of business, revenue or profit, loss of reputation, anticipated savings or wasted expenditure, pledges made on your behalf or to charity.

11.5 The Organiser will not be responsible for the behaviour of any spectators or third parties.

11.6 The Organiser cannot be held responsible for any issues or allergies resulting from food and drink products given out on the day of the event.

12 COLLECTION AND USE OF DATA

12.1 The participant agrees and consents to the Organiser using his/her personal details provided in his/her online registration form for the following purposes:

12.1.1 EVENT ADMINISTRATION

12.1.1.1 The Organiser requires a record of each participant's registration details including third party emergency contact information for administration purposes in order to properly and safely conduct the event.

12.1.1.2 By participating in the Tata Steel Richard Burton Run you acknowledge and agree that personal information (including medical information entered against your race number or collected by event medical staff during or after the Event) can be stored and used in connection with the organisation, promotion and track and trace and administration of the Event and for the compilation of statistical information.

12.1.1.3 confirm that my name and television, video footage, audio recordings or photographs taken during my participation may be used to publicise the event, event sponsors/partners and Tata Steel Richard Burton 10k Run generally, including television, website and DVD/video broadcasts.

12.1.2 EMAIL/SMS COMMUNICATION

12.1.2.1 The organiser will use the participants contact data submitted on the online form to send the participant information by email and or SMS relating to the event, other events and any further categories of news and promotional information as the participant may have requested on the Online Registration form.

12.1.2.2 The participant acknowledges and agrees that the organiser may send an email or SMS notification following the event inviting the participant to submit or renew his/her registration for any future events.

13 RESULT TIMING

13.1 All participants are assigned a chip timing device prior to the event in their race pack.

13.2 Chip time is the official time used for all prize results.

13.3 Times shall be rounded up to the next highest second.

13.4 Participants must wear their assigned timing device continuously attached to their runner number from start line to finish line, to receive an accurate finish time.

13.5 Participants found to be wearing two or more timing devices during the race will be disqualified and their results will not be recorded.

13.6 Participants must begin the event during the official recognised starting time in order to register an official course completion time.

13.7 For practical purposes finishing times are only recorded up to 2 hours from the start of the race.

14 EXCEPTION

14.1 Any individual requesting a waiver of any of these rules from the event shall submit a written request no less than 30 days prior to the event date specifying the nature of and reasons for the request.

15 AMENDMENTS/RESERVATIONS/ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

15.1 Event officials reserve the right to modify, supplement or waive all or part of the event rules without notice. It is participants' responsibility to check the event website for any changes. Participants shall be bound by any modification or supplement of the event rules published prior to the event. Failure to follow these event rules, as may be amended, will result in immediate disqualification, loss of prize money and removal from official results.

16 REFUSAL FROM THE RACE

We reserve the right to deny entry to, and to disqualify, any participant who fails to abide by the race rules or any of these terms and conditions.

CLOSE

Through registering for the Tata Steel Richard Burton 10k Run and the agreement to the Waiver and Terms and Conditions, a contract is agreed between Bryn and Cwmafan Events ("The Organiser") and the participant.
